

THE MORNING APPEAL.

The Official Paper of Ormsby County.
FRIDAY.....MARCH 15

NEVADA LEGISLATURE.

A Record of the Proceedings of the Seventeenth Session.

FIFTY-THIRD DAY.

Committee on Agriculture reported unfavorably on S B 83.
States Prison Committee reported favorably on S B 86.
The elected committee of the Storey, Lyon, Douglas and Ormsby delegations reported favorably on the county consolidation bill, with a minority report against the bill, and asked for an amendment, which would enable the committee to vote separately on the bill.

The minority report was adopted.
A message from the Assembly replied that a committee of conference had been appointed by the House on the Appropriation bill.

The Chair appointed Senators Gignoux, Gregovich and Comins on the Senate committee.

A B 110; relative to a Board of Health. Internal Improvements.

Substitute for Assembly Bill 86; relative to State Board of Education. Education.

Assembly Bill 65, relative to a jurors per diem fund in Lincoln Co. Lincoln County Delegation

Senate Bill 76. Consolidating the counties of Storey, Ormsby, Lyon and Douglas. Senator Boyle the author of the bill explained that he voted to postpone the bill indefinitely, because of the determined and organized opposition to the bill, which was introduced in good faith and in the interest of economy.

Senator Gignoux said that with the amendment allowing people to vote on the question of consolidation, he would favor the bill.

Senate Bill 86, relative to preservation of fish. Ordered engrossed.

Senator Mills was given until 3 o'clock to prepare an amendment to the bill.

Recess.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The conference committee appointed on the appropriation bill reported that the disputed sections had been rejected by the committee. This knocks out the State and District Fairs.

The bill passed as amended. Mills and Summerfield voting no. As soon as it was known that the Fair appropriations had been stricken out, there was considerable excitement about the Capitol building, and hot words went back and forth over the measure.

It was regarded on every side that the dispute over the question of State and District Fairs was very unfortunate. It was censured by the members from the smaller districts who refusing to endorse any appropriation which did not include their own districts. It was a case of everything in sight or nothing.

On motion of Richards the vote by which the county consolidation bill was lost, was considered and the bill referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The vote on Assembly Bill No. 82, was also reconsidered.

Assembly bill 53. An act to encourage agriculture. Motion to table lost. The bill related to the sale of agricultural products. Comins claimed that the title of the bill was misleading and that the present law was better for the farmers than this one. Bill passed. Comins gave notice of reconsideration.

Assembly bill No 9. (Beck's purity of elections bill.) Came up as special order and passed.

Comins offered an amendment to the bill. Lost.

The vote was 9 to 5. Comins said he had decided to offer several more amendments to the bill, but feeling satisfied that the bill would pass, he would not do so, as it might seem like delaying legislation. The bill passed 11 to 3.

Recess until 7.
